A. H. THURNE'S REMARKABLE CASE.

A. H. Thurnes, Mgr. Willis Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man.
Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good."

THE MAN WHO WHITTLES

Every community knows the man who sits on a storebox and whittles, finding fault with his neighbor and bragging how much better he could do it than his neighbor, yet who never goes out and does anything right himself? We have all seen that fellow.

He is the prototype of the Democratic party in politics. It has been so for forty years, hand running, and now is starting on a new lap. The platform of the Democratic party, adopted at St. Louis, shows conclusively that the party is not ready to do anything; it is sitting on the storebox abusing the other fellows and bragging about what it would do if it had a chance.

The Republican party began "doing things" in 1861. Every step of progress this country has made since then has been under Republican administration and Republican laws. The party in 1897 had to go back and do them over again, after a brief Democratic administration had undone the labor of years.

Republican party in its platform tells in plain language what it intends to do. The Democratic party is not specific, but intimates that it will work wonders.

Now, if you had a job of important work you wanted attended to would you give it to the fellow who has been sitting on the storebox for forty years, whittling, bragging and faultfinding, or would you entrust it to the other fellow who has been "doing things," and doing them right, notwithstanding the faultfinding and nagging of the chap on the storebox.

And the man on the storebox will sit and whittle and scold and brag for another spell.
